

SECRET

15 August 1979

Admiral Turner:

1. In re the invitation from Judge Webster for lunch and a briefing concerning the CI matter currently under investigation--Peggy Devine did call and offered two dates--27 August and 7 September, since your leave plans didn't coincide--and she felt September was better for Judge Webster--we chose Friday, 7 September, 1230-1400, at the FBI dining room.

STAT

Also, Judge Webster may not be available for tennis on Friday morning--but that is not firm as yet. ? Not this Fri - were moving -

STAT

STAT 3. [] called regarding the Quarterly meeting of the S&T Advisory Panel, scheduled for 11 September. They would like to have you to lunch and make their presentation at Noon that day. If you don't care to join them for lunch they will accommodate your wishes with an informal discussion from 1300 to 1400. Your schedule is free thus far for lunch that day, and they seem to like that idea. ✓ go ahead with lunch. after lunch informal discussion.

STAT

SECRET